

SCHOLARSHIPS FOR HIGH PERFORMANCE MASTER'S DEGREES IN DESIGN AND INNOVATION FROM IED SPAIN.

Design as added value to the strategic management of companies.

The global pandemic has shaken economies to their core and challenged the social status quo. Add to this the ongoing political turmoil and the climate crisis and you have the perfect combination for thinking that the model needs to be readjusted at all levels. This readjustment must go hand in hand with innovation in companies that will have to permeate at the social level.

The question is: what role will companies play in this reorganisation of the world? What profiles will be able to take companies to another level?

Now is the time to be more innovative than ever. We require new behaviours, new visions, new tools and new formats. The speed that events have taken, the need for ongoing adaptation and multidimensional innovation have become needs overnight as a result of the pandemic. In the midst of all the difficulties, 2020 was the trigger for the fastest pace of innovation the world has ever seen at all levels.

Education in innovation therefore becomes an essential element. Many of today's business executives received their education before innovation became an important part of the curriculum. This introduction of innovative or innovation-based programmes is creating a new generation of CEOs whose new mindset is a key element for company leadership.

The Masters of Design and Innovation at IED Madrid and IED Barcelona promote and transmit to students the knowledge, skills and abilities necessary to face the new economic, social and business paradigms of the 21st century.

These high-performance programmes are based on a very practical methodology, which is geared towards the development of projects in partnership with companies, as well as a personal project; talks by professionals, practical seminars and trips abroad.

There are three scholarships and they cover 100% of total Course Fee. The master's degrees for which we are announcing the competition for scholarships (starting in January 2022 in Barcelona and February 2022 in Madrid) are:

- Master of Design and Innovation (IED Madrid - 1 scholarship)
- Master in Fashion Management (IED Barcelona - 1 scholarship)

Each candidate may only enter for one competition for one single master's degree. Candidates that apply for a scholarship for more than one master's degree will be disqualified.

The scholarships will be awarded on the basis of the documentation received and the candidate's potential for development. For this purpose, an ad hoc panel of experts will be created for this scholarship competition.

The panel will be made up of professionals from IED Madrid and IED Barcelona. This panel will assess: the candidate's portfolio (quality of the work, presentation, etc.), his/her curriculum vitae, the cover letter and his/her personal skills.

For this purpose, the following weighting criteria are established:

- 60% of the value will be given to the portfolio.
- 40% to the cover letter and personal interview in which the candidate will have to defend the work presented and in which his/her personal concerns and communication skills will also be assessed.
